MENTORING DENTISTS:

Over the years, through study clubs, referrers and with dental students, I have actively enjoyed mentoring dentists entering into practice or in practice. This could involve the business side of dentistry, case planning, or coming to all of the appointments of a patient they have referred, or providing ‘Hands-on’ programs and clinical teaching at the UB Dental School. I have been committed for many years to enhancing communication between dentists and Labs, both as Chairman of our District Dental Society Laboratory Trade Committee and in providing lectures for labs to enhance the skills of their referring dentists. This has always been rewarding. Treatment Planning and Prosthodontic

Trouble-Shooting Sessions for dentists at my office has also been rewarding for those participating. While lecturing throughout North America, I have continued to appreciate all I have learned from my sponsoring Corporations such as Ivoclar-Vivadent Corp., Nobel Biocare, Strauman, Biohorizon, ADL Dental Laboratory, Kerr-Sybron, and others. To them I am most grateful for their inspiration and sharing of knowledge, and allowing me the privilege of doing the same.
